We, the undersigned Authors, assume the responsibility by signing the present Copyright Transfer Statement to provide the mentioned article to the Publisher and to confer to ICVL an immutable exclusive license to publish the article in both electronic and print format and further sublicense the mentioned article in its original language everywhere in the world. The Publisher shall be designated to use the right of repository of the article, its registration on a computer or on any electronic data medium, the right to print, publish, copy, disseminate and market the article in the optional form of printing and on any on-line and off-line data medium.

Section B – Warranties, disclosure of conflicts of interest and other commitments of the Author(s)

We, the undersigned Authors, hereby declare and guarantee the following:

- We are the exclusive authors of the article, and we have not granted any (non)-exclusive right to the Article to any third party prior to the execution of the present Copyright Transfer Statement;
- The article we have submitted to the proceedings for review is original, is our intellectual product, has been written by the stated authors and has not been published elsewhere in any form;
- We, the authors, hereby give our irrevocable consent for the review of the article and its subsequent publication, which does not include the right to withdraw the respective article prior to its publication. We hereby imply that the reviewed article shall not be published by any other journal/proceedings without the prior explicit consent of ICVL.
- The article is not currently considered for publication by any other journal/proceedings and will not be submitted for such review and does not infringe any existing copyright or any other third party rights while under review by this proceedings;
- The publication of this paper in its current form is approved by all undersigned (co)authors and tacitly or explicitly by the responsible authorities where the work was carried out, and no modification of the authorship will be made afterwards;
- We have understood that reproduction or redundant publication of the paper, either in print copy or electronically, such as on the Internet, is not permitted. No content published by ICVL (either in print or electronically) may be stored or presented on another private site organization's site, or displayed or reproduced by any other means. However, we may include a link on our own websites to the official website of these proceedings with your permission. However, we or the institutions we are currently affiliated to, may not host any previously published material by ICVL on any other website. We shall accept to indicate the exact location where our accepted paper was published in ICVL;
- The article contains no libellous, obscene or other unlawful statements and does not contain any materials that violate any copyrights or the personal or proprietary rights of any other person, entity or third party;
- We are committed not to be involved in any potential conflict of interest associated with ICVL or with our contribution to the proceedings;
- We have obtained written permission from copyright owners for any excerpts from copyrighted works that are included and have credited the sources in our article accordingly;
- We also understand that, for the exclusive transfer of the author's rights, no royalty (or any other fee) shall be claimed if our above-mentioned article is accepted for publication.

General Data Protection Regulation

In the event of acceptance for publication, we the undersigned, do grant permission free of charge to the Publishers of the Proceedings of the International Conference on VIRTUAL LEARNING – ICVL to make our article freely available online, on the proceedings website <https://icvl.eu/>. By consenting to this privacy notice, we give permission to the above-mentioned proceedings to process our personal data specifically for the purpose of publishing and disseminating/distributing our joint paper through third-party providers such as international scientific databases and portals. This permission includes, without limitation, the right to publish the work in whole or in part in any and all media now known or later developed.
